Dear Parents and Carers

Next Friday, 21st March, celebrates 40 years of fundraising by the Comic Relief charity that was founded in 1985. Taking place every March, this unique fundraising campaign uses comedy as a means to fundraise money for great causes. Since its launch, Comic Relief has raised over £1.6 billion to support community organisations here in the UK and across the globe.

As comedy is the whole theme of Comic Relief, we invite your child to come into school wearing something funny. Children do not need to wear their uniform on this day. The only limit is that we request no face-paints or hair dye as it ends up everywhere and our cleaners will not be pleased! Other than that, the limit is your child's imagination.

All donations must be given to your child and will be collected by their teacher.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,
